

R. B. ROOSEVELT, PRESIDENT'S UNCLE DIES AT SAYVILLE

New Yorker Expires at Long Island Home After a Long Illness.

Robert B. Roosevelt, uncle of President Roosevelt, and himself a prominent figure in national politics, died at 11 o'clock this morning at his country home at Lotus Lake, near Sayville, Long Island.

Mr. Roosevelt, who was seventy-seven years old, had been in failing health since last winter. He succumbed to a complication of diseases. Three weeks ago his physician, Dr. Lewis, advised his removal to Sayville, hoping that the country air would benefit him, but he grew steadily weaker, and for a week past was unable to leave his bed.
His physician and two trained nurses have been in constant attendance for several days. Mr. Roosevelt's two sons and other members of his family were at his death bed.

Justice, his distinguished nephew, Robert Roosevelt, was a staunch Democrat and was conspicuous in the campaigns of that party. He was United States Minister to the Netherlands from 1888 to 1890 and during the second Cleveland campaign was treasurer of the Democratic National Committee.

He served many times as a Presidential elector from this State. He was offered a nomination as elector in the last Presidential campaign, but declined because of his admiration for Theodore Roosevelt and his friendly interest in the younger man's political ambitions.

Like the younger man, Robert Roosevelt was a great lover of outdoor sport and was an ardent promoter of society. At the time of his death he was actively engaged in promoting the replanting of Long Island with white pine trees.

Mr. Roosevelt was admitted to the bar in 1861, and after practicing for twenty years he left the profession to become a merchant. He retired from active business some years ago, but kept up his interest in politics. He was one of the first to espouse the "unlabeled" doctrine that was felt to be the American soldiers during the Spanish-American War.

Mr. Roosevelt was one of the founders of the Union League Club, and at the time of his death was a member of the Manhattan Club, the Democratic Club, Sons of the American Revolution, Municipal Art Society and the American Geographical Society.

Funeral services will be held at Mr.
Roosevelt's Lotus Lake home at 11 o'clock next Monday morning. They will be conducted by the Rev. J. H.
Prescott, pastor of St. Ann's Episcopal Church of Sayville. The burial will be in Greenwood cemetery, where additional services will be held. No pallbearers have been chosen.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Roosevelt and their two daughters and the children of President Roosevelt, who are now at Oyster Bay, were to have attended a wedding here on Saturday, but owing to the death they will not be present.

ROBERT B. ROOSEVELT, WHO DIED THIS MORNING

A telegram has been sent to President Roosevelt announcing the death of his uncle, but it is not yet sure whether the President will attend the funeral.

Mr. Roosevelt was a widower. His second wife having died two years ago.
His sons, John E. Roosevelt and Robert B. Roosevelt, Jr., live at Lotus Lake.
They reside adjoining that of their father.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—President Roosevelt was early informed of the death of his uncle. The President has not determined definitely whether he will attend the funeral next Monday.
It is his wish to go, but he may not be able to leave Washington on account of business pressing upon him in the concluding days of the session of Congress.

MEN TO PAINT CHURCH WOMEN TO COOK LUNCH.

Lacking the necessary funds, but possessed of indomitable spirit, the members of the First Church of Christ, of Plainfield, N. J., have adopted a novel scheme to have their house of worship receive its annual coat of paint.

The men of the congregation have agreed to give a day's service in washing the brushes and the women will cook and serve dinner on the grounds at noon. The volunteers are being marshalled by Rev. Paul A. Parsons, an enterprising young clergyman and a graduate of a Western university, who will himself don overalls and jumper.

"HEARD OF PUTTY?" MAY YOHE ASKS

She Says He's Quit Her for Good and She Threatens Suit for Divorce.

May Yohe led a beautiful Aberdeen terrier down the gangplank of the Mesaba to-day. There was no one on the pier to greet her on her return.

"Heard anything of Putty?" she asked the reporters, referring to her husband, Putnam Brudlee Strong. They didn't. "The day before I sailed, last December, he started for Japan," she said. "I read since he got into some trouble in the Orient over a check transaction. I guess he's quit me for good. Everybody has gone back on me but my little Japanese maid."

"I am going to sue Putty for divorce on the ground of desertion and non-support. I'll not give him any quarter. I have forgiven him three times.
But I'm done with him."

"Wouldn't you forgive him just once more. If he suddenly turned up and promised to be good?"

"Never again. I guess his folks wish I was dead. You can deny that statement that they made a settlement with me. I never got a cent from them or from Putty either. I supported him from the time he met me."

"I am not going to stay in New York. I will go on to my mother's home in Providence and rest. I am tired of all the notoriety that has been thrust upon me."

As proof positive of the last assertion Miss Yohe announced she would star next fall in the French musical comedy, "Mlle. Nitouche." She declined to say anything about the cabined report from London that a cabman had this week obtained a judgment against her for an unpaid cab bill of $15.

NO COURT ROOMS FOR EIGHT NEW JUSTICES.

Surrogate and County Clerk May Have to Move to Give Space to Supreme Court.

Justices Traux and Dugro, of the Supreme Court, called on Mayor Mc-Clellan to-day to urge him to take action toward enlarging the accommodations of the Court-house so as to make room for the eight additional Justices who will take office next year.

The new commission, or Court-house Board, has not done anything tangible as yet, and the whole matter is in the air, with the probability that years will elapse before a new court-house will be provided. The Justices recommended that the Surrogate's Court and the County Clerk, who have offices in the building, be provided with quarters elsewhere and the rooms now occupied by them be turned over to the court while the work of providing a new court-house is going on.

MISS HEDDEN NOT GUILTY, SAYS JURY

Pretty Brooklyn Girl's Case Ends Without the Promised Political Scandal.

The promised revelations of political squabbling did not develop to-day at the trial of Mary Hedden, the pretty Brooklyn girl, charged with the larceny of $30 worth of clothing, when she came up before Judge Aspinwall, in the Kings County Court.

It was expected that Magistrate Furlong would appear and make a vigorous denial of the stories spread by his enemies regarding his friendship with the girl. He was not called on to do so, and only two witnesses testified for each side.

The charge on which she was originally held was grand larceny, but Judge Aspinwall to-day changed it to petit larceny. She and her girl companion, Marguerite Wadsworth, of No. 14 Arlington avenue, denied that she stole the clothing. The State called Gusie His-muth, a daughter of the family for whom she worked as a domestic, at No. 26 West 11th street, Miss Wadsworth said that the clothing disappeared when the Hedden girl left home, and that when she returned a few days later she was wearing the garments.

The jury was out only seven minutes and returned with a verdict of not guilty.

S.S.S. FOR THE BLOOD

The purifying action and curative properties of this great remedy have made "S. S. S. For The Blood" a household name, and thousands who are today enjoying perfect health owe their recovery from blood or skin diseases to this universally used blood medicine. S. S. S. is made entirely from roots, herbs and barks which possess not only cleansing and healing ingredients, but building-up and strengthening properties to keep the blood in perfect order. No one can be well when the blood is impure; they lack the energy and strength that is natural with health, the complexion becomes pale and sallow, the vitality is weakened and they suffer from a general broken down condition. When the waste or refuse matter, which nature intends shall be thrown off, is left in the system because of a sluggish, torpid condition of the expelling members, it is absorbed into the blood, making this vital stream weak, sour and acid, and its condition is manifested by boils, pimples, rashes, blotches and other eruptions of the skin. S. S. S. goes into the circulation and removes every particle of blood taint or poison of every character, makes the blood fresh and strong and gives energy to the entire body. When the blood has been cleansed by S. S. S. all skin diseases and eruptions pass away and the smooth, clear skin, glowing with health, shows that the body is being nourished by rich, pure blood. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., are all deep-seated blood disorders, and for their cure nothing equals S. S. S. It does not injuriously affect the most delicate parts of the body and can be taken with perfect safety by old or young. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired without charge to all who write.
